

THE BOY SCOUTS.—We have received a copy of the first number of the Boy Scouts' Headquarters' Gazette, which has just been published by Messrs. James Brown and Son, Glasgow. The Gazette, which will be issued monthly, contains many matters of interest to patrons and members of the organization, including an account of the visit of the Boy Scouts to Germany, with a portrait of Lieutenant-General Baden-Powell, C.B., the Chief Scout,

KINGSTON COAT AND BADGE RACE.—Kingston regatta took place yesterday. There were 37 events, the most important being the race for the Kingston Coat and Badge and the freedom of the Thames, open to watermen's apprentices. This resulted in an easy win for L. A. Francis, of Kingston. Phillips, of Putney, was second, and F. Nedham, of Richmond, third.

THE RESOURCES OF BRITISH HONDURAS.—Mr. Wilfred Collet, C.M.G., Colonial Secretary of British Honduras, will deliver a lecture on the resources of the colony at the West India committee rooms on Thursday, July 22, at 3 30 p.m. Sir Daniel Morris will preside. Tickets may be obtained from Mr. Algernon E. Aspinall, secretary the West India Committee, 15, Seething-lane, E.C.